Today's Webinar: What to Expect

The Fulbright Program

- Established 1946 to expand and strengthen the relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of the rest of the world
- Sponsored by U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and administered by the Institute of International Education's Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES)

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Eligibility for U.S. Scholar Programs

- U.S. citizenship
- Degree as required by award
 - Ph.D. or other terminal degree may be required
 - Many awards in the Core Program are open to applicants with a Masters and professional or academic experience – see Award Description for details
- Professionals and artists outside academia – recognized professional standing and substantial accomplishments
- Teaching experience as required by award
- New policies on previous Fulbright Scholar grants and waiting periods between grants

Selecting the Right Award

- Narrow your search by region, country, discipline
 - Discipline preferences listed in the award
 - All Disciplines awards
- Use advanced search function to search by degree requirements, professional profile, and grant activity
- Relevance of the project to the country; why will host country benefit from your project?

The screenshot shows the Fulbright U.S. Scholar Catalog of Awards search interface. At the top, the Fulbright logo is displayed, followed by the text "A program of the United States Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs" and "MY FULBRIGHT | FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR PROGRAM". Below this, the year "2018-2019" is shown. The main heading is "FULBRIGHT U.S. SCHOLAR CATALOG OF AWARDS". The search interface includes three dropdown menus: "Select Region", "Select Country/Area", and "Select Discipline". Below these is an orange "FIND AWARDS" button and a link for "ADVANCED SEARCH".
