

FULBRIGHT

Before we get started...

- If you are seeing this screen, the audio portion of today's presentation has begun.
- The GoToWebinar service offers two methods of listening to today's presentation: by computer speaker or by telephone.
- If you are attempting to listen by computer speaker, please make sure the speakers are turned on.
- If you'd like to listen by phone, select Use Telephone from the module on your screen and enter in the information provided in your registration confirmation e-mail.

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program: Opportunities in Sub-Saharan Africa

Maygan Anthony

Outreach and Recruitment, Sub-Saharan Africa
Institute of International Education (IIE)

Contact Us:

subsaharanafrica@iie.org

Today's Webinar: What to Expect

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program Overview

- Eligibility: U.S. citizenship and degree required by award
- Supports teaching and/or research activities for 3-12 months
- Open to academics, professionals, and artists (no age limit or host institution required)
- Apply to specific award with proposed project, hosted (in most cases) by higher education institution
  - Awards outline specific requirements like teaching experience or timeframe

Application deadline: August 1

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

2019-2020 Award Highlights

- Mauritius: Teaching and Research in Intellectual Property (9026-IV)
  - 6-10 month teaching/research project. Teach undergraduate/graduate courses in IP and give seminars. Working knowledge of French is an advantage but not required.
- Zambia: Multiple Disciplines – University of Zambia (9058-ZA)
  - 10 month teaching/research project. Applications sought in accounting, small business management, financial economics, international finance, international relations, management, marketing, public administration, engineering, leadership and governance, economic and political anthropology or science, elections, democracy and governance, corruption, educational policy, gender issues, and agriculture policy.
- Zimbabwe: Natural Resources and Wildlife Management (9060-ZI)
  - 10 month teaching/research project. Teach undergraduate/graduate courses to an average class size of 40 at Midlands University or the National University of Science and Technology. Preference is given to scholars with 5 years teaching experience.
- Africa Regional Research Program: (9465-MC)
  - Conduct research to increase or develop new intellectual ties between the U.S. and African Communities and contribute to scholarship in Africa. 3-9 months or flex option.

Application Resources

- Catalog of Awards: <http://awards.cies.org>
- Fulbright Scholar Program website: <http://www.cies.org>
- Application Guidelines: <http://www.cies.org/application-guidelines>
- Project Statement Guidance and Samples: <http://www.cies.org/project-statement-core-fulbright-scholar-program>
- Webinars: <http://www.cies.org/event-type/webinar-schedule>
- The Fulbright Scholar Blog: <http://www.cies.org/blog-posts>
- MyFulbright

Scholar Panel

Dr. Tanja Karp

- 2016-17 Fulbright U.S. Scholar to South Africa
- Associate Professor at the Department of Electrical Engineering, Texas Tech University
- Project: Engagement in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math) Through Robotics, University of South Africa

Dr. Margaret (Meg) Henning

- 2016-17 Fulbright U.S. Scholar to Zambia
- Associate Professor of Public Health at Keene State College, New Hampshire
- Project: Leveraging Mother's Voices in Maternal Child Health Delivered by Community Health Assistants in Zambia, University of Zambia

Question and Answer

“Professionally it was a great experience and a chance to feel like I was having an impact on an individual and on an institutional level. The feedback was overwhelmingly positive and the results of my teaching were very clear in the work that my students produced. It was very gratifying to look back at what I’d accomplished.”

- Scholar to Ghana (Teaching/Research, 2013-14)

CONTACT US

at SubSaharanAfrica@iie.org with any questions.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: AUGUST 1, 2018

Sponsored by the U.S. Department of State,
Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs

