The Fulbright Program

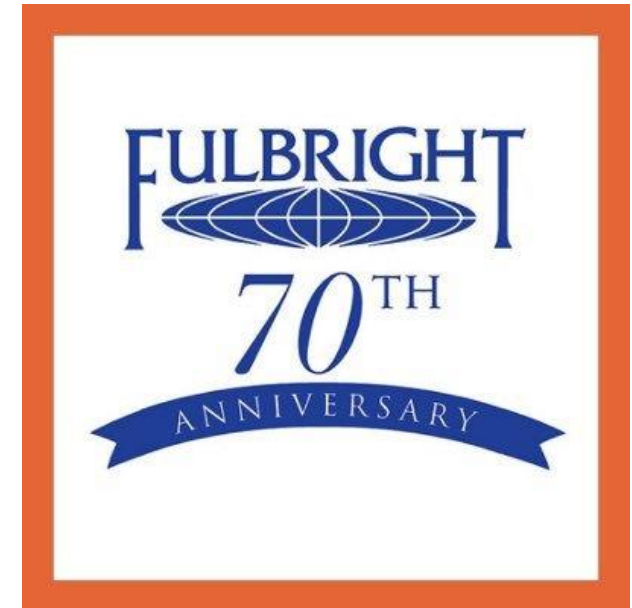

“We must try to expand the boundaries of human wisdom, empathy and perception, and there is no way of doing that except through education.”
— Senator J. William Fulbright

The Fulbright Legacy

- Established 1946 to expand and strengthen the relationships between the people of the United States and citizens of the rest of the world
- Sponsored by U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs
- Administered by the Institute of International Education's Council for International Exchange of Scholars (CIES)

Scholar-In-Residence Program

- Brings scholars and professionals from abroad to campuses that do not often host visiting scholars and/or serve underrepresented audiences
- S-I-R grantees
 - Primarily teach undergraduates
 - Provide cross-cultural/international perspective
- Application is made by the interested U.S. institution
 - 1 semester or full academic year options
- Deadline is October 16; Email: sir@iie.org
