The Fulbright U.S. Scholar Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Institute of International Education.

Mission

- In partnership with 160 countries worldwide, Fulbright offers passionate and accomplished faculty, administrator, artists, journalists, lawyers, and other professionals from all backgrounds an unparalleled opportunity to study, teach, or conduct research.
- Our mission is to foster mutual understanding between nations, advance knowledge across communities, and improve lives around the world.

A Brief History

- Established in 1946 by Congress, Fulbright is the United States government's flagship international educational and cultural exchange program.
- Fulbright is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Institute of International Education.

Outreach Lecturing Fund (OLF)

- ▶ Institutionally driven application by U.S. Host Institutions
- ▶ Scholar can meet, lecture, and exchange ideas with
 - ▶ Faculty and students
 - ▶ Community organizations
 - ▶ K-12 schools
- ▶ View the online scholar directory for a list of 900+ scholars who are currently in country.
- ▶ Email: OLF@iie.org

Institutions Served by Fulbright OLF

The focus of the OLF is to engage with institutions that are underrepresented within the Fulbright program. These include;

- American Indian and Alaskan Native Serving Institutions (AIANSIs)
- Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institutions (AANAPISIs)
- Hispanic Serving Institutions (HSIs)
- Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)
- Predominantly Black Institutions (PBIs)
- Community Colleges
- Small Liberal Arts Colleges
- Rural colleges and universities

Institutions may also consider partnering with other institutions in their area

OLF Program Objectives

- Help U.S. colleges and universities to internationalize by inviting Fulbright Visiting Scholars to their campuses
- The Outreach Lecturing Fund hopes to engage with campuses who are traditionally underrepresented within the Fulbright Program
- Enables Fulbright Visiting Scholars who are currently in the United States to accept guest lecturing invitations at other U.S. colleges and universities

Benefits for OLF Host Institutions

- ▶ Provides international engagement opportunities for U.S. students, faculty and staff
- ▶ Fosters future academic partnerships with U.S. higher education institutions, the OLF scholar, and his/her home institution
- ▶ Offers increased awareness and participation of the impact of the Fulbright Program
- ▶ Access to leading scholars from around the world.

Benefits for Fulbright Visiting Scholars

- ▶ Unique opportunity for visiting scholars to experience different areas of the United States
- ▶ Opportunity for visiting scholars to share their Fulbright projects and culture with new audiences
- ▶ Expansions of scholar's network with faculty and administrators of another U.S. institution and various organizations in the area where they present

OLF Application Process

Bringing a Fulbright Visiting Scholar to guest lecture on your campus is EASY

1. Identify a scholar you would like to invite by searching the Fulbright Visiting Scholar List on our website
2. Contact the scholar through his or her Faculty Associate, (or OLF team) inviting the scholar to give a guest lecture to students and/or faculty
3. Apply for OLF travel award funding after you and the scholar have solidified details regarding the lecture
