FULBRIGHT

fulbrightprogram.org

Opportunities to Host Visiting Fulbrighters

For more than 75 years, the Fulbright Program has provided higher education institutions across the United States with opportunities to enrich their campuses by hosting researchers who are experts in their fields. Fulbright participants conduct cutting-edge research, offer unique teaching skills, and bring fresh perspectives that benefit campuses and communities as they engage in a complex and changing world.

Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program

After applying in their home countries, approximately 900 faculty and professionals from more than 100 countries receive Fulbright grants each year to conduct research and/or teach in the United States. The Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program links campuses around the world and introduces new ideas and networks to students, faculty, and administrators.

fulbrightscholars.org/non-us-scholars/fulbright-visiting-scholarprogram

Fulbright Scholar-in-Residence (S-I-R) Program

The Fulbright S-I-R Program provides U.S. colleges and universities with opportunities to host scholars from other countries for a semester or an academic year. Fulbright S-I-Rs teach primarily at the undergraduate level, collaborate with faculty and administrators, and interact with the campus and local community.

fulbrightscholars.org/sir

Fulbright Outreach Lecturing Fund (OLF)

The Outreach Lecturing Fund provides funding for U.S. institutions to host Fulbright Visiting Scholars and Scholars-in-Residence who are already in the United States for short-term speaking engagements.

fulbrightscholars.org/olf

Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA) Program

U.S. institutions of higher education may apply to host foreign language teaching assistants to support foreign language instruction on campus. Approximately 400 FLTAs teach over 30 languages on campuses across the country.

foreign.fulbrightonline.org/host-institutions/flta-program

For more information, please contact fulbright@state.gov.

The Power of International Education

The Fulbright Program is sponsored by the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and administered by the Institute of International Education.

150017.V.1.2025